The education office of the Formentera Council reports that yesterday, Monday April 29 at 6.00pm, the local school of music and dance celebrated International Dance Day in the interpretative centre at Can Marroig.

An audience of roughly one hundred enjoyed music and dance performances by 48 island youth specialising in guitar, music for beginners (five to seven years old), accredited dance and modern dance. Material spanned a breadth of styles, from Tchaikovsky's “Swan Lake” and Shakira's “La, la, la”.

April 30, 2019
Àrea de Comunicació
Formentera Council