

Sunday 28 March, Formentera will host the eleventh Trofeu Illa de Formentera, a road cycling tournament organised by GE Espalmador and the Formentera Department of Sports and one of the biggest functions of its kind in the Balearic Islands. The race, the results of which will count towards the Interisland Balearic Challenge, starts at 9.30am for category-three contestants on the 46.8K circuit and at 11.30am for challengers in the first and second categories on the 82.5K route. Roughly 150 have signed up to date and the trial is open to men and women competing in the categories of Master 60, Master 50, Master 30, Under 23, Cadet and Junior.

24 March 2021
Communications Department
Consell de Formentera