

The Formentera Social Welfare Department-sponsored lecture series Xerrades per a famílies (Talks for families) returns on Thursday 17 December with a lecture from Pablo Rodríguez, a psychotherapist specialising in couples and families, about how couples can maintain a romantic relationship after having children.

The third instalment in this round of the series will be held in the training room of La Savina's Centre d'Esports Nàutics. Space is limited and seats must be booked in advance by phoning 971.321.271 or emailing educaciosocial@conselldeformentera.cat .

10 December 2020
Communications Department
Consell de Formentera