

CiF president Jaume Ferrer sat down with Joan Francesc Ferrer, a representative of Obra Cultural Balear's Formentera chapter, and signed into effect a partnership with OCBF on cultural and heritage.

The partnership is designed to promote new cultural fare in 2019. OCBF can receive assistance for putting on events like:

1. Primavera de cultura. Annual programming in celebration of the Diada de Sant Jordi (April 23) including literary presentations, conferences, round-table discussions, poetry readings and more.
2. Publications aimed at fomenting culture and the island's historic and natural heritage.
3. Consulting and research assistance drawing on the OCBF's expertise as one of the island's leading cultural groups.

The Formentera Council pledges up to €8,000 to support OCBF.

The partnership deal was signed Thursday March 7 at Formentera Council headquarters.
