

David Bueno, doctor of biology and professor and researcher at University of Barcelona, will lead a discussion entitled "Learning from change and uncertainty: a neuroeducational perspective". Broadcast on the Consell de Formentera Facebook page, the talk is part of the "Talks for families" series hosted by the Formentera Department of Social Welfare. Bueno will trace how the brain adapts to changes in uncertain times and give tips on managing these changes from an educational perspective.

8 March 2021
Communications Department
Consell de Formentera