The Formentera Office of Social Welfare is pleased to announce that Monday 18 July, sports and leisure activity leaders are invited to take part in a course with tips on talking to youth people about substance use. Alicia Bustos, a psychologist and expert in drug addiction prevention, will lead the training in the plenary hall (Sala de Plens) between 4.00pm and 6.00pm.

Participants will discuss basic concepts and effects of substances, receive thought-provoking data, and hear about dynamics and strategies for working with young people. To register, send an email to prestauratives@conselldeformentera.cat or call 971321271 before 14 July. The course is free of charge.
