

The Office of Culture of the Consell de Formentera is pleased to report that 4 to 8 April, the Sala d'Exposicions "Ajuntament Vell" will host a display of work by students in the wood course taught by workshop instructor and sculptor Aaron Keydar.

The exhibition will showcase the sculptures made by eight students in the course using wood carving techniques. The works will give visitors to the exhibition a close-up look at the properties and peculiarities of woods such as olive, loquat and almond trees.

The exhibition opens at the Sala d'Exposicions "Ajuntament Vell" on Monday 3 April at 7.00 pm, and will be open for visits from Tuesday to Saturday, 11.00am to 2.00pm and 6.00pm to 8.00pm.
